

Highlighting Aliso Viejo's Youth

The City Council on June 16, 2010 recognized Neil Aronson for starting the Green Now club at Aliso Niguel High School and working to improve our environment.

The club is focused on promoting sustainability at school and within the community as well as raising awareness of important environmental issues on campus. Club members partake in habitat restorations, tree plantings, and beach clean-ups.